

Mi-Place™ Comes to Camden County

Winslow Township, NJ – Fernmoor Homes is excited to announce its newest community: Mi-Place™ at Brightmoor. The amenity-rich luxury community of 1-, 2- and 3-bedroom rentals is conveniently situated in Winslow Township, near the NJ Turnpike as well as Routes 42, 30, 55, 295 and 73.

The gated community will consist of 312 apartments — all equipped with smart technology, including smart locks and thermostats. Additional features include managed Wi-Fi and on-site EV charging stations. Residents can take advantage of an array of amenities, like outdoor dining areas, patios with fire pits, a tot lot for little ones, and a Clubhouse with a gym, game room and great room — the latter two making great spaces for entertaining or simply just hanging out. There’s even a dog park and dog-washing station on-site (yes, the community is pet-friendly!).

Mi-Place™ at Brightmoor marks Fernmoor Homes first foray in Camden County. “Fernmoor is proud to bring modern, luxury housing to Winslow Township,” said Jeffrey Fernbach, President of Fernmoor Homes. “This is a growing area with a strong employment market, plenty of shopping and entertainment, and easy access to Philadelphia and commuter roadways.”

At the recent groundbreaking ceremony, notable community members and the Fernmoor team came together to mark the official start of the project. In attendance were Winslow Township Mayor Marie Lawrence and Winslow Township Administrator Joseph Gallagher, as well as Fernmoor Homes team members Jeffrey Fernbach, President; David Mileto, Project Manager; Carol Gephart, Director of Sales/Leasing and Marketing; Sholom Kaver, Director of Operations/FP Management; Lori Italiano, Property Management; and Shanelle Willis, Marketing Administrative Assistant.

With more than three decades of experience, Fernbach and his team know how to build successful communities — evidenced by their portfolio of more than 10 communities in Delaware, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Mi-Place at Brightmoor is slated to begin leasing in Spring/Summer 2023. To learn more about this unique luxury rental community and get on the Early Interest List, Contact Fernmoor Homes today.
